

THE DUTIES OF THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

The 18th East Judicial District consists of Garland County, Arkansas.

The Office of the Prosecuting Attorney seeks to protect victims of crime as well as citizens at large. In addition, the Prosecuting Attorney seeks to punish criminals, rehabilitate youthful offenders, and seek restitution for victims of crime.

Our society experiences a wide variety of crimes including murder, sexual and physical abuse and assault, abuse of the elderly, possession of dangerous drugs, domestic violence, writing hot checks, theft and forgery.

The 18th East Judicial District Prosecuting Attorney, along with local and federal law enforcement agencies, seeks to apprehend and prosecute criminals so that the result achieved will benefit society.

The main office is located in the Garland County Courthouse on the first floor, along with the Hot Check Division and the Victim Assistance Unit. The District Court Division of the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney is located on the 4th floor of the Garland County Courthouse.

The Office of the Prosecuting Attorney strives to be proactive in the prevention of crime by providing informative and educational workshops in several areas including but not limited to Elder Abuse, Hot Checks, and Domestic Violence.