

Shannon Sharp is a lifelong resident of Garland County and a graduate of Jessierville High School. She has been married to Sean Sharp for the past 25+ years and they have one daughter, Brittany. Sean, Shannon and Brittany are members of Community Baptist Church.

Shannon started working for the Garland County Assessor's Office in 1991, as a Deputy Assessor in the Personal Property division. She was promoted several times in the following years giving her the opportunity to work in every area of the Assessor's Office and learning all the duties of each position.

She worked as the CAMA systems manager, the appraiser manager and served as the Chief Deputy Assessor for two years. She is a Level 4 senior appraiser and is certified as a personal property appraiser, residential appraiser, and assessment administrator as well as an appraisal manager.

With 23 years of experience, Shannon was elected as the Garland County Assessor in 2014 and sworn into office on January 1, 2015. Shannon is committed to upholding the Constitution of the State of Arkansas and promises to treat all taxpayers with respect, fairness and equality. You may contact her at the Assessor's Office located at 200 Woodbine in Hot Springs or by phone at 501-622-3730.