Application Instructions for Voter Identification Card

Please return the following three items to your County Clerk, in person, to apply for a free Voter Identification (ID) Card:

- Completed Application: You must complete the entire application and sign the oath.
- Documentation Containing Full Legal Name & Date of Birth: A photo or non-photo identity document which includes both your full legal name and date of birth (see examples below).
- Documentation of Residential Address: Documentation showing both your name and residential address. (see examples below).

Examples of Documentation

In order for the County Clerk to confirm applicant's identity and residential address, applicant must submit a document showing applicant's full legal name and date of birth AND a document showing applicant's name (not necessarily full legal name) and residential address. Applicant may provide only ONE document as long as it satisfies all the requirements. Below are some examples of each type of document.

Documentation Containing Full Legal Name & Date of Birth: A photo or non-photo identity document which includes both your full legal name and date of birth.

The following are examples of documents which MAY contain both your full legal name and date of birth:

- a) Original birth certificate or certified copy of a birth certificate;
- b) Copy of Marriage License Application; (Arkansas' application likely will NOT contain the required information of full legal name and date of birth);
- c) Notarized copy of Applicant's State or Federal Tax Return filed for the previous calendar year;
- d) Paycheck or paycheck stub bearing the imprinted name of the applicant's employer;
- e) An original of a Medicare or Medicaid statement received by the applicant;
- f) An original of the annual social security statement received by the applicant for the current or preceding calendar year;
- g) Certified school record or transcript for the current or preceding calendar year;
- h) Naturalization documentation; or
- i) DD-214 form issued by the federal government to members of the military.

NOTE: The above is NOT an exclusive list. IF the document contains both your full legal name and date of birth, it may be used to demonstrate your identity.

Documentation of Residential Address: Documentation showing both your name and residential address

The following are examples of documents which MAY contain both your name and residential address:

- a) Utility or cable bill issued within the last sixty (60) days;
- b) Bank statement issued within the last sixty (60) days;
- c) Notarized copy of Applicant's State or Federal Tax Return filed for the previous calendar year;
- d) Currently valid residential rental contract and/or receipt for payment made within the last sixty (60) days for residential rent payments;
- e) Homeowners' insurance policy or bill for the current or preceding calendar year;
- f) Mortgage, payment coupon, deed, or property tax bill for the current or preceding calendar year;
- g) Personal property tax bill for the current or preceding calendar year;
- h) Current automobile registration receipt; or
- i) W-2 issued by applicant's employer for the preceding calendar year.

NOTE: The above is NOT an exclusive list. IF the document contains both your name and residential address, it may be used to demonstrate your residency.
